DEDICATION

The dedication of this yearbook is perhaps the highest honor we can give. And it is not enough. The ultimate honor will be our living the lessons we have learned. These we have learned through the courage, the deeper love of learning, the higher ethics — the universal language of the great teacher. In appreciation of such qualities, we, the Class of 1965, dedicate our Kernel to Mr. Ziegler Heilman.

TO TEACH — AND IN THE TEACHING BE TAUGHT.

Not only the how but also the why.

The pea in the P.O.D.

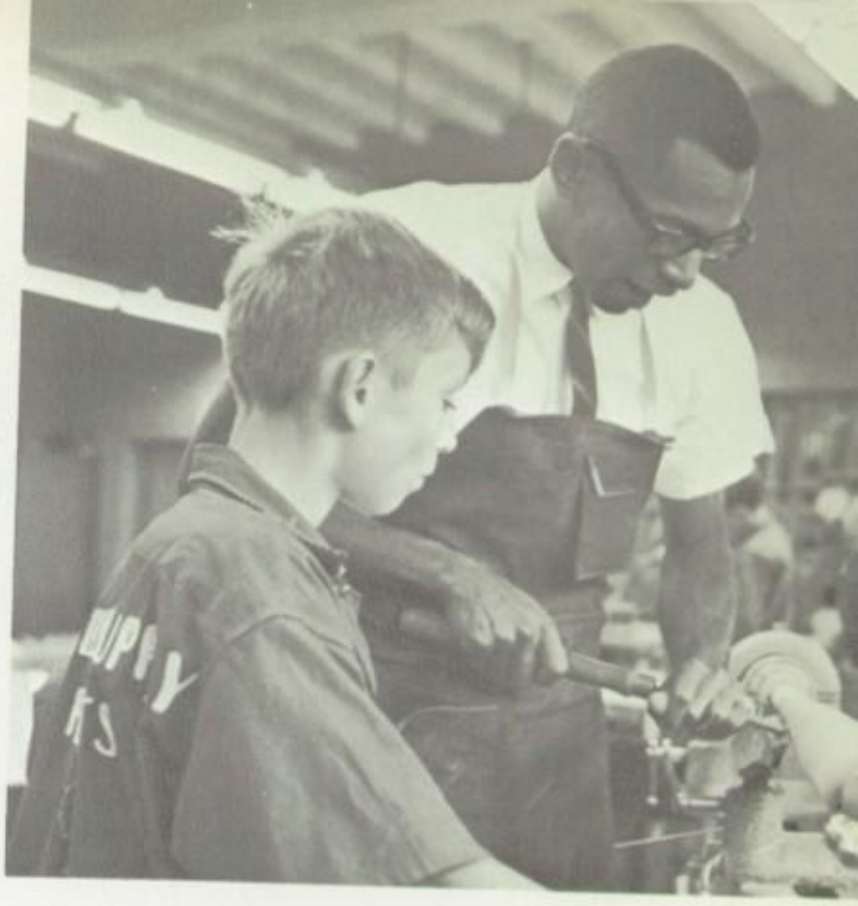
Could be.

And another thing . . .

Not me, I'm leaving.

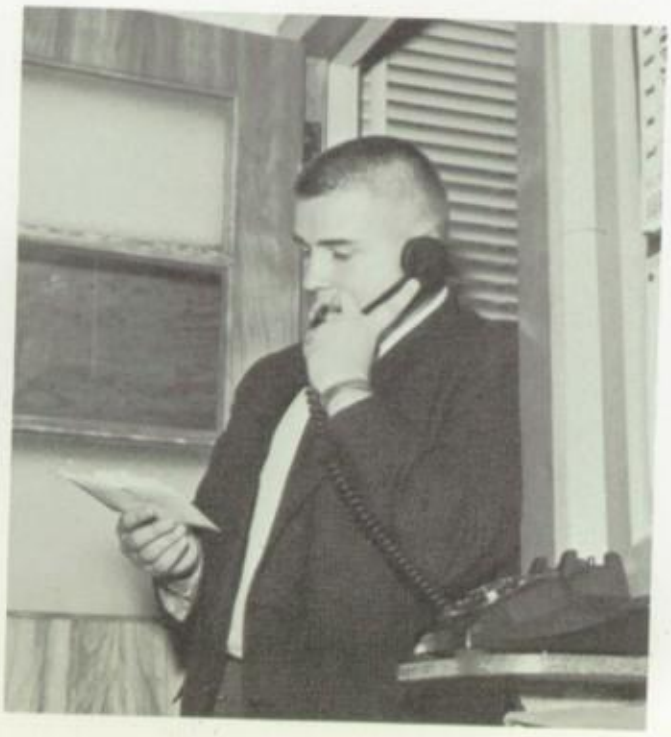
"Each mind has its own method."

Are you sure you're coming here to READ?



This is the way we work our lathe.

Is it phylum PTERIDOPHYTA or possibly SPERMATOPHYTA?



. . . and Wild Baby in the 5th.

What do you mean my picture's being taken?

THE GOAL OF YESTERDAY IS THE STARTING POINT

OF TOMORROW.

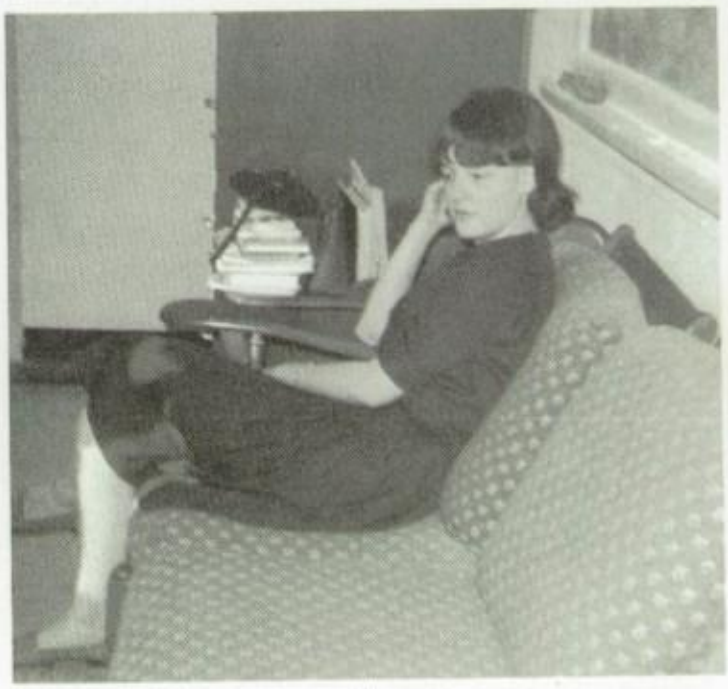
MOST CONGENIAL

Winnie Stevenson Steve Rhodewalt

George did it.

Oh! will summer never come.

Hold it! It's only 3:38.



"The thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

What's the matter with 8:30?

What ever happened to soft typewriters?

Dynamic heads of staff at yearbook seminar — must be . . . some good reason to attend.

Me? Carry her books?

Smile, you're on candid camera.

Eight o'clock and all is . . . well it could be better.

And then I said, "Listen, fellow, forget it!"

VARSITY TRACK

Since many members of last year's successful team are returning this season, our track boys expect to bring the league championship to O.A.H.S.

This was supposed to be a bully?

Ouch! What's that ball made of?

Quick! before Mr. Strode comes.

We, the 1965 Kernel staff, express our appreciation for the inspiration and counsel we have received from everyone involved in the production of our yearbook. We especially thank Mrs. Yerkes and Mrs. Nelson, our advisors, and Mr. Davis, our company representative. Without their assistance this accomplishment would not have been possible.
